PROGRAM OVERVIEW

ENROLLMENT and PLACEMENT

Upon registration, new students do an oral and written assessment test in order to be placed in an ESL class which corresponds to their level of English. Each session is in two parts which lasts for 8 weeks. Students who obtain a letter grade of B (70%) or higher will be able to move on to the next level. Most students enroll for 4-6 session (16-24weeks). After passing upper intermediate level 6, students are eligible to apply for the specialized programs (diploma courses).

INTENSIVE ENGLISH ADVANTAGES

Diverse Programming: Our programs (Starter to Advanced) are designed differently to focus on the particular English needs of that level and prevent students who take all levels from ever becoming bored! We are also able to accommodate split skills.

Comprehensive Program: Students learn and practice all skills in English: Reading, Writing, Listening, and Speaking on a daily basis.

Friendly Atmosphere: We are a big school with a big heart. Everyone is like family.

Fun Activities: We run school tournaments and encourage daily activities. Once a month, teacher and Intensive English classes have an all day excursion to have fun and meet students from other levels.

DYNAMIC SPEAKING

Dynamic Speaking is a course designed for students to improve their listening, conversation, and verbal skills. Students will focus on different topics per day such as popular culture, current events, and many more through group work, discussions, presentations, and debates. Each day's topic will also have the teaching of idioms and vocabulary. Students will be given continuous feedback to improve their natural speaking and use of colloquial expressions.

HOMESTAY

LIVE LIKE A CANADIAN

By choosing to live at a homestay with locals, you will be able to have a more authentic Canadian experience. You'll gain first-hand knowledge about Canadian culture and family life.

The homestay placement program promotes friendship and cross-cultural communication and is a great way to improve your English while experiencing Canadian life.

Students will be matched with Canadian hosts who will provide three meals a day, as well as a comfortable room with a bed, desk and other furnishings. All homes are in close proximity to public transportation.

LIVE INDEPENDENTLY

If you prefer another type of accommodation, we can provide referral and placement services. May include:

- College student residences
- Hotels and hostels

Alternative accommodations are ideal for students who want to live independently or with other students or travelers. SGIC can connect you to a variety of options to meet a wide range of budgets and personal tastes.

COURSE OUTCOME

This course is designed to dramatically improve students' natural speaking style. Fluency is the goal for students who take this course. This will be accomplished by using quick-response activities to build up students' speed (fluency) and extensive one-on-one teacher-student feedback to build accuracy.

PERIOD DESCRIPTION

PERIOD 1:

The opening period will have students reviewing weekly video journals, as well as sound recordings of themselves mimicking and imitating a native English speaker.

The second half of first period will have in one pronunciation, understanding how to improve speech clarity and accuracy.

PERIOD 2:

The second half of the morning section will have students working on building their vocabulary through oral presentations, dictation from popular cinema and modern dramas. This will allow students to become more familiar with popular slang, idioms and influential / useful English expressions.

PERIOD 3:

Third period will have students filming "a day in the life" videos, weekly news reports and in-class debates that will give students the chance to feel comfortable discussing hard-hitting topics confidently in English. All assignments, video footage and in-class presentations / debate will be reviewed in class as part of final mark assessment.

PERIOD 4:

The final period of the day will focus more closely on media, video recording and will give students the opportunity to get on the street, interviewing and communicating with locals to secure footage to include in the SGIC weekly news and various other video-based assignments.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

SGIC offers an extremely rewarding and productive internship placement for EFP graduates wishing to apply their newly learnt skills to real-life work.

EFP interns will be working for the Korea Senior Citizens Society of Toronto and have numerous challenging opportunities to practice translation skills in a written and oral capacity.

Interns will accompany and assist Korean Canadians in a variety of situations such as doctor or hospital visits, trips to the bank and wherever a translator is needed. Students also translate for the RCMP-The Royal Canadian Mounted Police!

SGIC Toronto

교차로 신문

Students who are enrolled in EFP have a chance to enhance their translating skills in many ways during the course. Kyocharo is like a Korean version of Metro newspaper, and students gain hands on experience translating an English article into Korean. The translated article will be published in the Kyocharo newspaper. The students will also receive a reference letter from the newspaper company in acknowledgement of their translation work. Get ready for one more great experience in Canada!

SGIC Toronto

JoongAng Daily

SGIC EFP is designated for students to improve the quality of English to Korean and Korean to English translation. As part of the curriculum, students are introduced to be an intern reporter at JoongAng Daily Vancouver. The purpose is for students to be able to demonstrate usage and understanding of the process involved in translating. They will be translating two English newspaper articles into Korean per week for eight weeks with the translation techniques and vocabularies they have learned during class. Upon completion, successful students will receive a certificate.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

BUSINESS COMMUNICATION

Business Communication Plays an important part of this course. Each student will compile a body of written work in a portfolio. Each student is also assigned to research a country of his/her choice in a comprehensive project on business in a global setting, with emphasis on business and communication without borders. The students will also give oral presentations based on their written reports.

At the beginning of every lesson newspapers are reviewed for vocabulary, global news to gain awareness of our world and any new technological development. Phrasal verbs and idioms for the workplace and everyday life will be reviewed so students become conversant with Canadian and North American business and culture.

PRACTICAL BUSINESS ENGLISH

This practical part of the course offers students an opportunity to explore modern business concepts in a North American English-Speaking context. In addition to the wealth of vocabulary taught pertinent to business culture, students will be working in a skill-enhancing environment.

Students will gain confidence and acquire the experience and knowledge in the following skills: how to make effective telephone calls; the process of negotiation to become a better negotiator; how to prepare for job interviews and how to organize and deliver powerful presentations. Students will finish the course thinking more worldly, more business conscious and equipped with English skills applicable to business at large.

COURSE CONTENT

Comprehensive Program: Students are taught a range of past teaching technique to up-to-date methodologies for all levels and all skills of English with ample opportunity to practice them in the classroom while building confidence in delivering English presentations.

CLT Model: Communicative Language Teaching is the model of the course in which students learn by interaction and apply this model to their own lesson-planning.

Ongoing Consultation & Feedback: Teachers consult students one-to-one after each major project and presentation making the feedback always personal and useful.

Comfortable Class Atmosphere: Creating and maintaining a pleasant class environment where students are encouraged to take risks is our main protocol.

Stimulating Curriculum: Students are never bored with a variety of workshops; academic studies are well-integrated with in-class teaching practice; students are continuously challenged to think like ESL teachers while improving their own ESL skills.

TKT Preparation: Students are thoroughly prepared to sit the TKT (Teaching Knowledge Test) issued by Cambridge University; TKT certificates are recognized world-wide and provide an excellent building block for further development in the TESOL field.

High TKT Score: Successful students of the program will improve their test-taking scores by at least 35%.

Free TKT Exam Coordination: SGIC coordinates TKT exams in TORONTO and VANCOUVER for students and following through to make sure they receive their certificates regardless of where they are in the world!

COURSE OUTCOME

- Understanding a child's perspective and how to engage different learners when teaching English.
- Learning lots of games, songs, and craft ideas effective in the classroom.
- Applying theories of childhood development to lesson planning and course development.
- Applying basic teaching techniques and positive discipline to children.

Who should take the program?

- Educators and Care-Takers from abroad enjoy learning about education for children in Canadian culture while improving their own English skills.
- Alternative to ESL: Students who seek a different approach to learning English than a typical ESL course may enjoy the challenge of learning some teaching technique themselves.
- Creative Students: ESL students interested in arts and culture may apply and improve their own creativity by learning Canadian arts & crafts appropriate for children.
- TKT Preparation Program: ESL Methodologies for children is an excellent complement for graduates of SGIC TKT Prep. to increase knowledge for teaching children. By contract, students whose English level falls below the entrance requirement for TKT Prep. course may benefit from this course which is an excellent building block to the higher intermediate level required for TKT.

Observation Practicum Component

SGIC students have the opportunity to observe and assist a daycare centre in Canada for 2 days in the program (Toronto Campus). Students may plan and prepare activities for the children at the daycare placement, assist staff or simply observe the workings of a Canadian school, whatever will be within students' abilities and comfort level.

IELTS

COURSE OUTCOME

SGIC IELTS Preparation Program is designed for students to learn and master the techniques of each part of the exam: Reading, Writing, Listening, and Speaking. Understanding the challenging questions and vocabulary is half the battle of succeeding on IELTS. SGIC's program also concentrates on the vocabulary and comprehension needed to increase test results from students.

SGIC IELTS Preparation Program aims to give students ample practice tests in which to apply their techniques and augment their English and to focus on weak areas in order to make solid, consistent improvement. SGIC's experienced and professional teachers will provide regular assessment reports for each student to understand their strength / weakness and level of exam preparedness. Test-taking stress management will also comprise a small portion of the course.

After 8-24 weeks of intense preparation, SGIC aims to equip students with the skills to score a minimum of 7 on each of the exam components.

IELTS PREPARATION

IELTS (The International English Language Testing System) is an English proficiency test developed by Cambridge University and is recognized world-wide as evidence of a person's English aptitude and is acceptable by most English-speaking universities.

There are 2 types of IELTS tests: Academic and General. If you want to study at an English University, Academic IELTS with a minimum band 7 is often the requirement. (Band 9 is the maximum level)

Results, guaranteed fast.

TOEFL[®] iBT

UNIVERSITY & COLLEGE PATHWAY

■ TOEFL iBT

The main advantage of our TOEFL-iBT course here at SGIC is that we do not focus solely on the test. Anyone interested in pursuing his/her English at an advanced level can attend class. You will not only increase your TOEFL-iBT score but also achieve a higher standard of vocabulary, reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills.

This 8-24 weeks course is divided into two stages of four weeks each. All sections of the TOEFL-iBT test are covered, and while students improve their test-taking skills, they will also learn many aspects of essay writing and academic reading. Their vocabulary will noticeably expand too.

Furthermore, a large amount of practice tests, with various levels of difficulty, are handed out and reviewed. After this course, you will gain more confidence, and substance, in your English!

The class will cover:

- Separate vocabulary lessons
- All types of questions that come in the TOEFL-iBT Test
- Listening comprehensive tests
- Speaking questions samples
- Miscellaneous information and instruction in English based on the students' needs

Entrance Requirements:

SGIC Admission Test or Completed English Upper Intermediate level 6 at SGIC and up / IELTS 5.0 + (Oral Test Required)

COURSE OUTLINE

SGIC UCPP Program is designed for international students who have already reached an advanced level or have completed 8 weeks of SGIC's Advanced ESL or who have outdated TOEFL/TOEIC scores; but who have gaps to their knowledge needed to succeed at a Canadian college or university.

UCPP is designed to fill the academic gaps needed to succeed in post-secondary programs instructed in English. UCPP covers all the language skills comprehensively: reading, writing, listening, speaking, including sub skills such as vocabulary and grammar within an academic context of a variety of tasks/assignments typically found in Canadian post-secondary institutions.
